Sarsfield Credit Union Ltd., in common with other financial institutions is required to verify your tax residency for the purposes of the Common Reporting Standard (CRS). The CRS is provided for by Section 891F of the Taxes Consolidation Act 1997 and was established to enable an automatic exchange of financial account information between countries.

For your information the information required to be reported under the CRS, including name, address, TIN, account number, account balance and payments on the account will be provided to the Revenue Commissioners and may be exchanged securely with another Competent Tax Authority in your jurisdiction of tax residence, but such information will at all times be treated with the strictest confidentiality as required by the Data Protection Acts 1988 & 2003. Only data that is legally required to be reported will be provided to the Revenue Commissioners.

For more information on the CRS, please contact Revenue at aeoi@revenue.ie or see <http://www.oecd.org/tax/transparency/automaticexchangeofinformation.htm>
